

1. Input data and a collection of algorithms.

2. Split data into 10 blocks.

3. Fit each of the 3 algorithms on the training set (non-shaded blocks).

4. Predict the estimated probabilities of death (Z) using the validation set (shaded block) for each algorithm, based on the corresponding training set fit.

